Regarding the Search Conducted by the Tokyo District Public Prosecutors Office and the Japan Fair Trade Commission

On December 18, 2017, a search involving Kajima Corporation was conducted by the Tokyo District Public Prosecutors Office and the Japan Fair Trade Commission due to a suspected violation of the Antimonopoly Act.

Kajima Corporation has been striving to promote employee education for thorough compliance and develop a system to prevent bid-rigging. It is a matter of great regret that such situation has occurred in spite of our efforts. We deeply apologize to all our stakeholders for the concern that this matter has caused.

Kajima Corporation will continue to fully cooperate with the authorities' investigations.
