Regarding Filing of Lawsuit to Revoke Cease and Desist Order from Japan Fair Trade Commission

On December 22, 2020, Kajima Corporation (the “Company”) received a cease and desist order from the Japan Fair Trade Commission for a suspected violation of the Antimonopoly Act over a construction project for Shinagawa Station and Nagoya Station using the open-cut excavation method pertaining to the Linear Chuo Shinkansen led by Central Japan Railway Company.

The Company has consistently been pleading not guilty in the criminal trial, arguing that there is no violation of the Antimonopoly Act over the abovementioned construction project. Therefore, it is also unacceptable that the Company has been found to have acted in violation of law under the cease and desist order, and a resolution was passed at the Board of Directors’ Meeting held today to file a lawsuit to request the revocation of the cease and desist order.

Regardless of the filing of this revocation lawsuit and its outcome, the Company’s directors, officers, and all employees will continue to further strengthen and enhance our system for compliance.

We appreciate the understanding and continued support of all of our stakeholders.

Since this issue has only minor impact on financial performance, no change is to be made to the forecast of consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 announced on November 10, 2020.
